Shri Abhay V. Purohit Ji,

Please accept my heartfelt gratitude for your warm wishes on the victory in the recently concluded Lok Sabha elections. This is a victory of the world's largest democracy, our abiding loyalty towards the Constitution and the vision of Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas.

For the first time after six decades, a government has been voted in for the third consecutive term, after two full terms. By blessing our government, people have imparted greater strength to our efforts towards nation-building.

We have been marching ahead with the goal of building a Viksit Bharat by the year 2047. This mission has received the affection, faith and blessings of the people. We are determined to continue empowering the four pillars of our nation - the poor, youth, farmers and our Nari Shakti. Our government has already begun to intensify efforts in this direction.

This decade will prove to be extremely crucial for India. It will witness massive efforts to fulfil the dreams and aspirations of 140 crore people. The nation's global standing will also scale greater heights during this period.

I am fully confident that through Jan Bhagidari - people's participation - we will take the nation to newer heights of growth, inclusion and self-reliance.

I wish you and your family good health, peace and prosperity.

Warm regards,

Yours,

(Narendra Modi)
