- 1.17 The judging of the entries is scheduled to take place in three stages as listed below

The awards at the zonal and national levels shall be in two categories:

A. Architectural Project

5 projects to be shortlisted for presentation at each zone

1 project from each zone to be selected for presentation at the national jury

2 projects to be awarded as the best among the five presented at the national jury

B. Project addressing concerns within the society

5 projects to be shortlisted for presentation at each zone

1 project from each zone to be selected for presentation at the national jury

2 projects to be awarded as the best among the five presented at the national jury

Stage1 (Short listing)

A team of three assessors will short list ten thesis projects (five in each category) for stage 1B assessment. The code numbers of the shortlisted thesis projects will be announced and communicated to the participants by a draw of lots, before each assessment at Stage 1B after commencement as per the procedure stated below.

The board of assessors may at its discretion select two entries as standby, (to be listed in order of merit), in addition to the shortlisted ten, code numbers of whom will be listed and kept in a separate. Standby entries may be announced only if authors of any of the ten shortlisted entries are not present at the jury, and only after presentations of other shortlisted participants are complete.

Stage 1B (Zonal Jury)

Authors of the ten short listed thesis projects (five in each category) shall make an audio visual presentation to members of Jury (Assessors) in a public jury attended by eminent citizen, public and students, held on the given date. Each participant must make the presentation himself/herself.

The promoter or his representative will announce code numbers of the shortlisted projects 30 minutes before commencement of first presentation and by draw of lots, the sequence of first presentation will be decided and announced. At the beginning of the first presentation, code number of the second presenter will be announced. At the end of first presentation code number of the third presenter will be announced, and at the end of the second presentation code number of fourth presenter will be announced and so on. Each participating student will be given a minimum of 20 minutes & maximum of 30 minutes for the entire jury. It will consist of maximum of 15 minutes for the presentation on screen & 15-20 minutes for the question-answers.

Two thesis projects (one in each category) from each zonal jury will be selected for National Jury. These awards will be declared in the evening after completing all presentations.

Stage 2 (National Jury)

Authors of the ten selected thesis projects (two from each zone) shall make an audio-visual presentation to members of Jury (Assessors) in a public jury attended by eminent citizen, public and students, held on the date of the Final Jury. The participants must make the presentation himself/herself. The sequence of presentation at the National Jury will be announced in a manner similar to that of the Zonal Jury. Each participating student will be given a minimum of 20 minutes & maximum of 30 minutes for the entire Jury. It will consist of maximum of 15 minutes for the presentation on screen & 15-20 minutes for the question-answers.

- 1.18 The promoter will announce the COA National Awards for Excellence in Architectural Thesis and JK AYA Best Architecture Student of the Year Award, after completion of presentations, on the declared date.
- 1.19 A copy of the report of the Board of Assessors will be made accessible for inspection to participants at the same time as the Board's award is made public.

DISQUALIFICATION

- 1.20 The Board of Assessors may disqualify entries for the following reasons:
 - 1.If dispatched by post or through the forwarding agent to the address given on the website www.coa.gov in after declared deadline.
 - 2.If the participant disregards any of the conditions of the program.
 - 3.If the participant attempts to influence any member of the Board of Assessors.

TERMINATION OF AWARDS PROGRAM

- 1.21 If against all expectations entertained by the promoter, the result of the awards program is such that none of the participants could be declared by the Assessors as the winners of the awards, the program could be regarded as terminated and the promoter will on the advice of the Board of Assessors award ONLY the consolation awards to all the thesis projects selected for National Jury.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF AWARD AND EXHIBITION

- 1.22 The promoter will publish the award of the Board of Assessors and inform the Council of Architecture after having first informed the authors of the award winning thesis projects.

RIGHTS

- 1.23 All DVDs will be retained by the promoter as his property.
- 1.24 Copyright of all thesis projects including the thesis projects winning the prizes will be that of the authors of the designs, however, the promoter will have the right to publish the projects received, in architecture journals and as compilation of entries received, for the purpose of records and academic interest. JK Cement Ltd. will share the rights to publish the project of the winner of the JK AYA Best Architecture Student of the Year Award.
